DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by JP 09330473 with English Abstract, hereinafter "'473."

With respect to Claims 1 and 8, '473 teaches the placing, forming, printing and merging steps in the Abstract and figures 5 and 11.

3. Claims 1 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Cole (5,850,217).

With respect to Claims 1 and 8, Cole teaches the placing, forming, printing and merging steps in the Abstract and figure 4 or 7.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

4. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

5. Claims 2-6 and 9-14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Cole.

With respect to Claims 2-6 and 9-14, these claims recite various different designs for graphic which are only aesthetic in nature and are not patentable distinct. One of ordinary skill in the art would have realized that would be obvious to personalize the graphic of Cole so as to distinguish their retail establishment.

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claim 7 is allowed.

7. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: The Examiner reserves comment until the entire application is in condition for allowance.
